

5TH ANNUAL

Celebrating Water
Street And Lancaster
Community Heroes

Friday
November 13, 2020
6:45 - 8:30 PM

ISAIAH 61 AWARD RECIPIENTS

THE GOOD NEWS AWARD

Ruby Jones

Founder

Perish No More Ministries

Founder of Perish No More Ministries, Ruby Jones has helped numerous men and women find freedom from addiction, and restoration in Christ. Ruby can personally testify to the restoring power of God from her own life. She holds several theological credentials, including degrees in Practical Theology and Biblical Counseling.

THE OAK OF RIGHTEOUSNESS AWARD

Nicholle Norton

Instructional Supervisor

Wonder Club

Nicholle Norton beat the odds from a young age, escaping family addiction when she came to know Christ. Since then, Nikki has boldly helped others find the same life-transforming love. She has worked with Water Street for nearly 20 years, in local ministries since 1996, and become a foster mom to six girls, adopting four.

THE RESTORER OF THE CITY AWARD

Jen Koppel

Executive Director

Lancaster County Coalition to End Homelessness

Jen Koppel serves as the Executive Director of Lanc Co MyHome. Jennifer has shown her passion for caring for the Lancaster Community through 25 years in the social services. Her work in transforming systems across the county has been nationally recognized, and revolutionized how local organizations come together to solve issues in poverty and homelessness.

MARLIN & DORIS THOMAS SERVANT LEADER AWARD

Brent Kreider

Owner/President

B.R. Kreider & Son, Inc.

Brent Kreider is the Owner and President of BR Kreider, a fourth generation family business in Lancaster. He has served as Chairman of Black Rock, and on the board of Tabor. He is currently on the Property Committee of Water Street, being a part of several of our biggest physical transformations, including 2019's Providence Shelter.

PROGRAM

WATER STREET MISSION

Red Carpet Interviews From Water Street Mission

Welcome and Water Street Update

Jack Crowley | President

Invocation

Jeff McLain | Campus Pastor

Isaiah 61 Awards

Marlin and Doris Thomas Servant Leader Award

Restorer Of the City Award

Sponsored by Meadia Heights Golf Club

Musical Interlude: Goodness Of God

Oak Of Righteousness Award

Sponsored by Thread

Good News Award Winner

Final Words

Jack Crowley | President

Guest Thank You

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS

WILLOW
VALLEY

MEADIA HEIGHTS
GOLF CLUB

ADDITIONAL THANKS

Heather Colosi | Will Do For You Concierge

THE AWARDS TONIGHT

The Good News Award

The recipient of the Good News Award has distinguished themselves as someone who brings hope to those in the midst of pain and hardship, experiencing homelessness, extreme poverty, or similar difficult circumstances. They provide support or aid to those in need, and instill in others a sense of dignity, and help them see and experience God's immense love for them.

The Oak of Righteousness Award

Sponsored by THREAD CREATIVE

An Oak of Righteousness has experienced healing and restoration in their life. They have overcome difficult past circumstances and decisions and are standing firmly rooted in Christ, healthy and growing. Their life is a testimony and example of transformation and of God's heart for people.

The Restorer of the City Award

Sponsored by MEADIA HEIGHTS GOLF CLUB

The recipient of the Restorer of the City Award is an individual who has devoted time and resources to improving the Lancaster community. Utilizing their God-given gifts and resources, they have repaired structures or programs that have atrophied; they have made a significant investment of time, talent, or money in an existing social service organization; Or they have created a new structure or program to improve the lives and well-being of those in our community.

The Marlin and Doris Thomas Servant Leader Award

The Servant Leader fulfills their calling and advances the mission of an organization by walking in humility and supporting and serving the employees and volunteers in that organization. By helping individuals grow in their character and in their effectiveness, the Servant Leader creates an environment where the organization can reach its full potential and provides an example for others to follow.