Our medical clinic will undergo some renovations to better serve our patients with a change in the lab and physicians and nurse's station area. The medical clinic will remain open to our clients during renovations utilizing only the areas that will not be under construction. WSHS clinic staff and volunteer professionals are very happy to continue serving our clients during this renovation time and always. Continue schedule your appointments as usual.

Good news for 2022 in research medicine

Research in other areas aside of covid-19 has continued, and is about to bear fruit. In 2022 giant strides will be made in treating haemophilia, and there will be a resurgence of interest in drugs for neurological disorders—and progress on malaria.
